

My People Need Courage To Stand Up To Evil For Me Their Savior And LORD!

“My people are ball-less wonders, My son. Women are in charge, and children set the tone of what they will do for Me, My son. My people really have no balls– they are cowards at heart, and for that they will get the Lake of Fire, count on it! Few in My Church are courageous in Me, and when tough times come many will fall away, having denied that they ever knew Me, like Peter. See My people in Kurdistan being executed for Me today by the Islamic hordes. They will stand up for Me unto the death– will you, My son? My people are wussies– they give up at the least provocation, unable to endure adversity in Me, because they never gave up all to follow Me like you have. The least little thing upsets them, and they will not stand up for Me. That’s why there is no evangelism on the streets of America because they cannot take the heat, My son. My people have not been through the Furnace of Affliction like you have out West– they will not follow Me unto the end. Therefore they shall receive the eternal judgment for denying Me, their Savior and LORD. Pray that that does not happen to you and your faith remains strong unto the end. Be an overcomer in Me! Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen, Brian!”
